

DEAR STAN,

JAN 10, 1970

THE F.U.N. SHOW HAS COME TO AN END AND MOST EVERYONE I TALKED TO SEEMED TO BE HAPPY WITH THEIR BUSINESS. I DID QUITE A LOT OF BUYING AND SURPRISINGLY ENOUGH
MOSTLY WITH SOL KAPLAN & LEON
HENDRICKSON. BOUGHT SEVERAL C, D &
CC $5 GOLD PIECES AT ABOUT HALF
RED BOOK - (EXAMPLES 82CC XF@35,
1856D VF@65; 1852C @ VF-XF@67 &
1859D VF+@90). ALSO BOUGHT ^{1803/2} VF-90 @ $3.00
& TURBAN $5 AU-UNC @ $335, NICE FIELD.

I SHOWED YOUR GOLD PIECES TO SEVERAL AND JUST DIDN'T COME CLOSE TO A SALE & ALL I WAS ASKING WAS $5 TO $15 ABOVE YOUR PRICES. SO IT IS DIFFICULT TO STOCK ANY OF YOURS
AT PRICES QUOTED.

I AM RETURNING 6 PCS. & MY
CHECK FOR $85.00 ON 1848C. AS SOON
AS YOUR NEXT PACKAGE WITH THE 6
PCS (INCL. 3 ^{ARRIVES} $3.00) I'LL RETURN BALANCE
WITH PAYMENT FOR ANY KEPT.

I HOPE YOU CAN UNDERSTAND MY SITUATION, AS I HATE TO RETURN
MOST ALL, BUT NOW HAVE LITTLE HOPE
OF KEEPING ANY OF THE SIX PCS
YOU ARE SENDING,

HERE ARE THOSE THAT I WILL MAKE OFFER ON (SOME LOWER THAN PREY)

1836 - 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ \$60 ⁰⁰	1809/8 - \$5 - \$280 ⁰⁰	} BOTH WITH DENTS

In making this bill out, I didn't have the coins here for me to see. I have them at the bank vault and I have them at the office. I have them at the office.

Dear Stan,
After having sent off my last slightly irate letter, I received very belatedly - due due postal delays - your letter of Dec. 16 with the payment slip for 935.- and this was the item I was sort of looking for. As to your letter of 1/16: it is ok, pay the prices you mentioned, and deduct the 10 bucks, and again thanks for taking care of it, and forwarding my mail. On this lot of coins, particularly on the 7 pcs. 16-s I have a hefty loss, but one cannot help it, at least I will have the money to play with. Incidentally, you may drop in at Brigandi's, he keeps pestering me to send him offers for better date 20-s. He is not the best buyer but you might sell him a few coins. As to the coins mentioned above, you cannot judge above prices until you have seen the coins. So don't blow your top just yet, but wait and see. I will have to send them in several envelopes to avoid the necessity of customs clearance for you. If you make counteroffer, it would be better if you make a global one, for the lot. Regards,

STAN KESSELMAN

Dear Stan:

Thank you for your note offering $3,300 for the 1885 $20 gold piece. The situation is this: My customer paid $3,000 for it about three years ago. We are charging him a ten percent commission for handling his coins. So, at $3,300 he would have naught for his efforts. I will offer you subject to prior sale, the coin at $3,550. This will at least return a few dollars to our customer and enable us to make a profit as well. If this offer is interesting I welcome hearing from you further on the subject. Incidentally, I ask that you keep this special price in strict confidence as I have quoted the piece to several other persons, some of whom may be your customers, at higher figures.

With best wishes I remain,

Sincerely yours,

James F. Ruddy

George:

I have possession of both lots of coins.

To be frank the coins are of little interest to me. I have them all and they do not sell.

Below is a list of the prices I can pay. Let me know which you accept and I'll deposit the money. On the other coins let me know who I should ship them to or hold for you?

1917 $1 Paying $90. (don't need it)
1854-D $1 Paying $175. (have 3 coins already)
1813 $5 Paying $315.
1891-CC $5 Paying $35. (common garbage)
1890-CC $10 Paying $55.
1883-S $10 Paying $40.
4 Carson City $20 EF Paying $270. (CC $20 dead in low grades)

Other lot:

1884-CC $20 VF paying $65.
1895-O $10 Paying $36.
1893-CC $5 VF Paying $35 2 coins $70.

There is not one good coin here that I can sell.

On the 2 silver pieces I would pay $25 and I don't know what I am doing.

In the future I do not need $20 CC gold low grade common dates, I do not need 0 mint common date eagles or common low grade CC $5 Gold.

Best wishes,

Stan Kesselman

Dear Stan,

George is away on a business trip at the moment, and in the meantime, I am answering his mail. He will return at the end of this month and will let you know then about the coins .

I see from the papers that the US is still a good place to make money, but perhaps not such a safe place in which to spend it! Perhaps you will come for a visit and take a look at life over here?

MR. Stan Kesselman

New York, N.Y.

Dear Stan,

Thanks for your letters, I was away on a mixed business and pleasure trip (pleasure was o.k. business was not a pleasure), that's why I was delayed.

It is ok, you may have the coins at the prices listed by you. I think the total amounts to $ 1176.-, but please check my addition. Enclosed please find deposit slip.

Please do me this favor: pick up the mail for US COIN CORP. at Grand Central Station, Box 3314, separate the advertisements materials from others, and mail the stuff to me. Also, please pay them $ 9.00 for the next 2 quarters, deduct $ 9.00 plus postage from your check. Use the attached label for my address, so you will not have much trouble with it.

I am now negotiating to purchase a very nice collection, mostly US Gold, some silver, and foreign gold, but all nice material. Give me a bit of general run down on conditions. I already made an offer substantially under asking price, so there will be negotiation, I would like to know whether the US market improved or not. It is mostly rare dates and mintmark, and very few early gold. There is a total of 108 US Gold coins involved.

Otherwise all is well, the weather is perfect, and I still like England.

Regards

June 5, 1970

Dear George:

Enclosed please find receipt for $1176. deposited to your account today. This covers the full lot without any deductions. Addition is correct.

I will pick up your mail, send it to you as I did last time. I will also pay the postage on Box 3314 as before as take the amount off next lot.

Steinberg is giving me a hard time with the postage and ins. and customs due on the last lot. He wants me to pay $9. to him, he says share of my coins. Then he wants $90. the total amount. Either you settle the postage matter with him or tell me what to do?? Let me hear from you immediately on this as he is a real pain.

I will be happy to keep buying from you, but conditions are getting worse, rare U. S. gold getting very hard to move. Almost no customers left and no money around for coins. So keep this in mind. Things are as bad as ever. I am buying coins very cheap here, but I am still unable to turn them over as no buyers around.

Glad to hear all is well and thank Anita for writing to me while you were away.

Kindest personal wishes,

Stan Kesselman

15 West 81st Street
New York, N. Y. 10024

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I received the two coins which you sent me on June 18th, namely the 1842-C small date $5 and the 1848-C $5 Gold.

I am enclosing check for $250.00. The check is drawn on my good friend Mr. Reilly which is a perfectly good check.

Yours very truly,

Enclosure

June 23, 1970

Dear Bill:

Package missed me, so sorry for the delay.

Enclosed please find on approval the 1847 BU $5 at $70. If you can not use the type 2 $1 gold at $100, please send it back.

Now to your coins:

I am returning the following:

1864 $1	1882 $2 1/2 (soldier)
1874-CC $5	1880 $2 1/2
1836 $5	1870 $1
1837 $5	1911-D $10 rep	14 Coins total
1834 $5	1839 $10
1834 $5 EP	1876-S $2 1/2
1836 $5	1871-CC $5

14
13
38

I am keeping on approval:

1836 $5 EP
1834 $5 EP 2 coins

I am buying and check enclosed:

1884 $2 1/2	$125.
1892 $2 1/2	$80.
1876 $2 1/2	$63.	5 coins at $500.
1872-CC $20 F	$65.
1872-CC $20 VF	$120.

These I may buy, but would have to get lower prices:

1856 $1 I can pay $140.

1803/2 Best is $275.

1879 $1 $35 is tops and I will probably buy only 1 coin $175 for pair

1882-CC $10 is AU with marks and most I would pay is $90.

1834 $5 coins I would pay $150 each. Coins are nice but not gems.

I would put them on the list to you at $190.

1888 $2 1/2 I pay $45. The proof coins are all off. I can see how you bought them as Uncs. They are dull and most have marks in the fields. I would go $150. each and I would buy a few at that price, not all so you can sell the rest. They will be hard to sell as they are dull and proof gold that is off is problems.

Thanks for sending.. Sorry to be rough, but don't know at this time what the future has in store.

Check enclosed for the balance:

1803/2 $5	$285. (don't ask me why)

Larchmont, New York 10538

Sept. 10, 1970

Dear Mr. Scanlon:

Enclosed please find my list of U. S. gold coins that I have for sale.

If you would like to see some of the coins I would be happy to bring the coins to you, or meet you in New York City, or mail them to you and you could examine them at your leisure. If you prefer I can leave the coins at Stack's and you can examine them there. Any way you wish is fine with me.

I have been collecting, buying and selling U. S. gold coins for the last 15 years. If you ever would just like to talk I would be happy to meet you one day at your convenience.

I have at this time around 10 clients who actively buy U. S. gold coins. We talk over what they plan to accomplish and then I try to find for them the coins they desire. Many times my function will be to give them my knowledge on several coins that come up at auction and they will buy the coins there.

Please let me know which coins listed below interest you and we then can plan on getting together. Also, just for the record, coins are mostly a hobby with me. I am an attorney-at-law here in the city.

Dear Bill:

Thanks for sending the $3 gold and the 1911-D $25 back. I'm still a little drunk, so bear with me.

Re: to the coins:

1854-D has been polished and reeding is partly gone. I bought the VF at ANA auction at $925. Best I can pay for another that is worse is $800.

1855 $3 $225. sold price is fair

1864 $3 Best I can pay is $225.

1867 $3 is AU & $225. is best I can go. I have LF on list to sell at $275.

1870 is AU-Unc. and I have AU on list to sell at $245. I would pay $235. for this one.

1871 don't want

1875 paying $200. (Don't really want)

1877 would pay $400. I paid that for my other one.

1880 I bought a nicer one at ANA auction at $370. I would pay $325. for yours, it has marks on obverse field,

1881 paying $400. have several already for years

1882 paying $225.

1883 is AU and I have one on list to sell at $300, best I can do is $275.

1885 I sold a better one at $450. your coin is AU and best is $375

1889 is AU and I have one on list to sell at $250., best I can pay is $225.

Let me know when I should return and I'll get on a check for the balance.

Best wishes,

Stuart Kesselman

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I am interested in the $5 1864-S and the $10 1873-CC. Enclosed is my check for $1350. The price for the $5 1864-S seems high. Could this be reduced?

I cannot afford the $10 1879-CC since I have been spending too much on coins recently. You can take it off my want list. My revised want list:

$10 1870-CC

1873

1873-CC (another)

1875

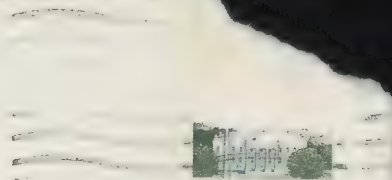

I would appreciate it if you would not cash my check until I have had a chance to see the coins.

Could you give me any information about the rarity of these two coins? How many have you had; how many do you know of?

Sincerely,

A. H. Stroud

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

Enclosed please find your copy of the Grand Central Sale catalogue. You will find your lots marked in red.

In general, this is a fine selection of numismatic material and we have every reason to believe that the sale will do well although, an auction is always somewhat unpredictable. We trust you will be pleased.

We have a system of safeguards in our auction process that will pick up mistakes at a later date but if by chance you note any mistakes in your consigned material, would you please call it to our attention now.

Our next sale is NASC in Los Angeles in February. This will no doubt be the second best sale of the 1971 year, being second only to ANA which is always the great one. We would be pleased to include your choice and desirable material in this sale. Please send the material in soon if you wish to consign to this important auction.

Thank you for your consignment and we hope to be of service to you in the future.

Sincerely,

John S. Queen

Dear Stan:

Thanks for your letter. Enclosed find my check for $1900.00 dated 11/30, for the 20-S $20 gold.

I have 5 of the 1880's left, 14 of the 1879's. They have gone rather well in my ad in the Numismatist. I don't think I'd be interested in the High Relief.

I need the following St. Gaudens $20's.

I also have a customer for: another 1929 $5, xf of better Liberty $20's xf or better 1852, 53, 56, 57, 58, 59 1860, 63, 64, 81-C, and 1887-S.

RARE U. S. GOLD BOUGHT & SOLD
HIGHEST PRICES PAID

Dec. 16, 1970

Dear George:

I signed today claim for loss on the 5 1920 $20 Gold coins. It took some time for the papers.

Enclosed deposit slip for $62.50. for the 1920 $20 gold. That was price on the others and I no longer need the coin as 1970 is about over and the novelty is gone..

I can use the better dates. I bought quite a lot from Ed & Donner. Let me know what is available, or just send for immediate payment.

Give my best to your lovely wife.

Happy holidays,

Stan Kesselman

Dear Stan,

You are a lovely guy, and if I were in business for love, I would love to do it with you. But.....

I cannot buy special dates for you, and send them on approval under these circumstances. It so happens, your deducting 2.50 costs you thousands of dollars. I just got mad at you at the wrong time for you. I returned now from the Continent where I bought a beautiful lot or rather collection of 20-s and 10-s. Some very rare among them. I had honestly the intention of sending them to you as is. Then I got his letter of yours. It costs today 59.50 to buy one stinking VF common date 20. So when I send you one piece for 65.00 in unc. and a 1920, and I pay postage and insurance, don't think I can do it for love.

Also, your not paying last time 10.- dollars to Foxi, - as you know so well - cost me a 10.- dollar check.

So I decided to spend 300 dollars on a round trip flight and take the whole lot to NY myself. Just to show you I am not bluffing, I will show you the collection, but you will have to pay regular prices if you want to buy, just as you do with Donner and Shapiro.

And believe me Stan, it does not pay to be small, or cheap.

All right, it is off my chest, Happy New Year to you, YOU BASTARD!

Dear Max:

Invoice for 26 coins

Enclosed please find 25 coins for your Calif. Feb. auction. I have priced them at what I would like to receive for the coins. If you have bids that are close then I will lower the prices, as usual.

Anything over my amounts are your profits, if coins do not sell I get them back without charge. Grade them anyway you wish. If photos are expensive do without them. Send back the items you can not use.

My expensive type coins I keep elsewhere and do not see how I can get them to you by Tuesday. If you had them by Friday Dec. 25th, is that too late for two extra coins?

Dear Stan:

I would love to have the 1834 2½ as it is so rare. It only cat. $2500 though, and would be very hard to sell eventually as type collectors would take the 1851 etc.

Yes I will trade for it and maybe some cash too, but most would have to be trade. I assume this is the Alto coin sold by Stack's. The scratches described are not visible on the plate; how bad are they? How much did it sell for?

I will list coins amounting to $5995 that I would trade. If you want to not include all items tell me what you want and how much cash difference. The 1890 5D is sold now. ^{got} $400

1882 5¢ Trans Gen Proof $1250

The above coins total $3995 or $200 more than the 1834. & I would trade all for the 1834 with no cash either way. All coins are very low mintage and sleepers. The 1882 has sold to $3000 and Cat. Judd $2500 in 1965. The 1825 is rarer than 1826 which books $2100 VF! *

The 59-S Dol. 20,000 made is only S mint of Type. The 50¢ 86-87 only 5000 made and the 64-s 25¢ is so rare I hate to part with it. Stacks sold an EF 64~~5~~ last year polished for $230 and ^{made} ~~has~~ statement that missing in almost all their sales! The 67-68 P 25¢ are so rare says Merkin that collectors settle for proof hence the low book value. They do bring double Cat.
at auction. The 1965 Dime is only 3rd ~~piece~~ ^{piece} offered in 15 years! I rescored it.

Also the Half Cent are real cheap as you can check very old cats, and find 1796 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ Gold listed less the 1836 & 47 40 years or more age. Well I have babbled long enough. Write and let me know if you like the deal. I really would like the 1834 but the nicks and low catalog value bother me if I were forced to sell. Maybe you would buy it someday as I don't know anyone who would. It would be easier (as You said) to sell many lower priced coins than one ~~rare~~ ^{rare} date, but this is a coin for my ego. I am shooting in the dark cause I don't know what you paid for it. If you want to not take all the coins and me pay you some cash I would not want to pay more than 20% Cash for the coin. Also do you know any history of owners of the coin (mehl)?

Write Soon.

Truly,

Dale
